Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-42 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present invention is directed to computer system and method for providing a hash function which allows collisions to be more easily resolved and which can be telescoped or expanded so that the hash function can be used with items of different lengths. The closest prior art, DeLong et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,230,231) discloses method and system of hashing an address by composing an XOR of bits in the MAC address to provide a hash and reversal technique for recover each element of the original address. The next closest prior art, Chin (U.S. Patent No. 5,852,607), discloses method and system for providing a hash table addressing mechanism includes a hash circuit for manipulates MAC address. Both DeLong and Chin does not explicitly disclose applying an invertible hash function and an invertible hash function complement followed by an XOR of the resultants of the hash function. The cited prior art, either singularly or in combination, fails to anticipate or render the above claimed feature obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
